

COURSE: SPAN 318 Great Works of Spanish Literature II

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course aims to introduce students to Spanish literature from the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries. Throughout the course, we will study a selection of texts from various authors representing different literary movements of these periods.

ESTRUCTURA

Classes consist mainly in the study and discussion of texts students will have previously read as homework. After a theoretical approach to each author and era, we will focus on the analysis of the specific texts, which will aid us in understanding the literary movements and characteristic styles of each stage. The course will also include other educational activities such as movies, conferences, etc.

For both readings and class discussions on authors, movements, literary styles, etc., students will receive a list of key questions included in a Questionnaire and a Reading Guide to aid in the study and comprehension of the topics.

Students must complete a final paper or research project, in which they will consult complementary sources. Papers must be no more than 6-8 pages in length (double-spaced in word, with a 12-point Arial font). Before writing, students will hand in a research proposal so that the instructor may orient them and help them in locating any necessary sources in our library. Not handing in the paper by the due date established in this syllabus will lower the grade 5-10 points. In cases of plagiarism, the grade will be a 0. For this paper, students will follow MLA format, (they will receive a copy of this format in orientation).

In addition to this essay, students will carry out a project chosen by the instructor. This assignment will consist in an oral presentation treating a theme from the mandatory course readings.

Likewise, there will be a written test halfway through the course on material covered up to that time. Dates are specified in the specific plans for this course.
