COURSE DESCRIPTION

Our school curriculum is structured in six levels and 12 modules (two courses per level). The six levels correspond to those established by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, from A1 to C2. Each of these levels is subdivided in our Curriculum Plan into two modules so that it is more reliably adjusted to the students' actual level of knowledge and language acquisition.

Access (A1)		Platform (A2)		Threshold (B1)
A1 Initial 1	A1+ Initial 2	A2 Intermediate 1	A2+ Intermediate 2	B1 Upper Intermediate 1	B1+ Upper Intermediate 2
Avanced (B2)		Effective operational mastery (C1)		Mastery or expertise (C2)
B2 Avanced 1	B2+ Avanced 2	C1 Avanced high level 1	C1+ Avanced high level 2	C2 Upper Level 1	C2+ Upper Level 2

Upper Intermediate 1 and 2 correspond to level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Each course or module consists of 60 face-to-face hours of Spanish teaching, at a rate of 3 hours per day, from Monday to Friday for four weeks.

The courses are designed for students with previous knowledge of Spanish. The aim of the course is to provide the student with the necessary resources and skills to understand the main points of clear texts in standard language if they deal with familiar matters, whether in work, study or leisure situations, i.e. those tools necessary to reach the threshold level (B1).

The fundamental objective is that the student, according to his/her particular learning style, develops his/her communicative competence and the methodological approach that best leads us to this objective is the development of a communicative approach.

As for the typology of activities, there is a wide range of activities ranging from the more formal ones (gap exercises, drills, question-answer, transformations, error correction...) to activities which gradually increase communicative freedom.

ACCESS REQUIREMENTS

In order to be able to take level A1+ it is necessary to fulfil one of the following requirements:

- To have passed level A2 + at the Centro Superior de Idiomas.
- To have reached level B1 in the Centro Superior de Idiomas Placement Test (only new students).
- Have passed the DELE A2 exam.
- Official A2 level qualification from public universities or the Official Language School.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

According to the EFR, at the end of this level the learner will be able to:

- Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters, whether in work, study or leisure situations.
- Be able to deal with most of the situations that may arise during a trip in areas where the Spanish language is used.
- Produce simple, coherent texts on topics which are familiar or of personal interest.
- Describe experiences, events, wishes and aspirations, and briefly justify opinions or explain plans.
- Identify the context and knowledge of the world appropriate to that context, and make appropriate inferences to understand both what is being expressed and what lies behind a message.
- Adapt to the addressee and the context.
- Develop skills to compensate for shortcomings in the communicative process.
- Readjust the message according to his/her abilities and available resources.
- Control the success of the communication and self-correct.
- With respect to mediation skills, at this Threshold level: collaborate with people of other nationalities (classmates and teachers) and show interest by expressing it through interactions with simple questions and answers, making proposals and suggestions, seeking agreement and proposing alternatives. Can convey the main points of long texts in simple, simple language on topics of interest to him/her and clear informative texts on familiar and/or topical subjects, although some lexical limitations may cause some difficulty.

FINAL EXAMINATION

COURSE RULES

Attendance is essential in order to follow the courses correctly and to improve the language. Attendance is checked daily and attendance of at least 80% is required. Given the compulsory nature of attendance, attendance of less than 80% will result in a penalty in the final mark and attendance of less than 50% will result in the loss of the right to take the exam. In the case of absence due to medical reasons, the corresponding proof will be given to the teaching staff.

The course is taught entirely in Spanish and students are expected to speak Spanish at all times. Students should try to speak Spanish from the first day not only in the classroom but also outside the classroom.

Exam dates are indicated in the syllabus and will not be changed to accommodate students' travel plans or other personal matters. Students take two exams during the course, there are no make-up dates or additional exam dates. Assignments and essays will not be accepted after the deadline set by the teaching staff.

COURSE ASSESSMENT

The final grade will not be the result of the final exam, but of the sum of all the components of the Evaluation section of the course. In order to pass the level, the average grade must be at least 6/10.

Weekly assignments related to the course outline (essays, presentations, reading assignments) will be handed in to the teacher and carried out in class. Students will be provided with a guide on how to carry out these tasks.

Oral production and interaction will be assessed by means of a final oral exam, which will include the topics and linguistic functions worked on in class.

The use of Spanish in the classroom, willingness to participate, cooperation in group work and respect for classmates and teachers will be taken into account when calculating the participation grade.

Any evidence of academic plagiarism in assignments or attempted cheating in exams will result in failure of the course.

All phones and electronic devices should be switched off and put away during lessons, unless teachers wish to use them as educational tools.

Video or audio recording of the class is prohibited.

Attendance and participation	10%
Class assignments (homework, essays, and presentations)	10%
Oral exam	20%
Final exam	60%
Final exam date: on the last day of the course during normal class hours.

The oral exam is compulsory.

In order to obtain the average, a minimum mark of 4 must be obtained in the oral and written exams. Otherwise, the student will be considered "failing grade".

Final grades will be available at: <http://www.csidiomas.ua.es/es/cursos/espanol/notas>
